Dear Ms. Ann,

April 22-23 marked the 13th Annual Conference for the Newfoundland & Labrador Organization of Women Entrepreneurs (NLOWE). This year's conference was a tremendous success with more than 120 delegates from around the province in attendance.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for delivering the opening address during this year's conference. Our conference provides valuable business management training to women entrepreneurs, training that they might not otherwise be able to access. Again and again, our delegates tell us that this conference is one of the more practical and applicable business events they attend. Feedback from everyone involved has indicated another enormously successful event and NLOWE thanks you for the role you played in contributing to that success. The valuable information provided in your session will help and inspire women in business from all over Newfoundland and Labrador.

Again, thank you for your support of this year's event. Your participation was greatly appreciated and added significant value to our conference.

Sincerely,
